Dear Partners, Rethinkers and Circular Economy Supporters,

Ready for the journey? Only together can we navigate towards a future free from plastic pollution. Expect views and voices, inspiration, ideas and innovative approaches.

We are looking forward to exchanging with you about your experiences as well as current trends and concrete next steps towards a circular economy for plastics. The “Rethinking Plastics – Circular Economy Solutions to Marine Litter” project, pilot projects and partners from the region will share insights from the joint work along the plastic value chain, across seven countries and two continents in the past 3,5 years.
